

A woman in a vibrant floral dress is performing on a stage, her hands clasped near her chest. She is the central focus, with a large, stylized white title 'TIRAMISU!' overlaid on her. Below the title, the text 'PAR LA CIE MEZZA LUNA' is written in white. In the foreground, four other people are watching her: a man in a yellow shirt on the left, a man in a light blue shirt and red pants in the center, a woman in a floral dress in the center, and a woman in a black top and striped skirt on the right. They all have expressions of surprise or delight. The stage is decorated with greenery and flowers.
